

E-FIGURE 35-3 A Schatzki ring in the distal esophagus. Presenting symptoms include intermittent dysphagia to solids with long periods of normal swallowing between symptomatic episodes. Endoscopic dilatation of the ring is usually effective in eliminating symptoms.

