

A

B

FIGURE 76e-77 Sarcoid. A. Infiltrated papules and plaques of variable color are seen in a typical paranasal and periorbital location. B. Infiltrated, hyperpigmented, and slightly erythematous coalescent papules and plaques on the upper arm. (B: Courtesy of Robert Swerlick, MD; with permission.)

FIGURE 76e-78 Pyoderma gangrenosum on the dorsal aspect of both hands. Multiple necrotic ulcers are surrounded by a violaceous and undermined border. (Courtesy of Robert Swerlick, MD; with permission.)